ULUBERIA INSTITUTE & LIBRARY: A TIMELESS JOURNEY (1902–2025)

My association with this glorious institution spans over half a century (1968–2015), and in that long journey, I have had the privilege of witnessing its many transformations from very close quarters. Through the passage of time, different people have shouldered its responsibility, each guiding it with dedication and vision, keeping pace with the needs of their era.

Today, I cannot but offer my heartfelt appreciation to the present Governing Committee and especially to its Secretary, Mr. Siddhartha Das. With untiring devotion and remarkable foresight, they have resurrected this century-old institution from the ashes of near oblivion and infused it with new life, embracing the possibilities of modern technology. This endeavour is not only admirable but deeply inspiring.

May this noble effort achieve its fullest success. As this venerable institution steps into the dawn of its 125th year, may it glow in renewed radiance—clothed in joy, adorned in newness, yet carrying forward the pride of its timeless legacy.

With warmest wishes and profound respect.

Benu Banerjee.
